Independence Day Celebration

Jacob Matriculation School was enveloped in a wave of patriotism as it commemorated India's 78th Independence Day with a resplendent celebration. The day dawned with a melodious prayer song by the school choir, followed by the invocation of Tamil Thai Vaazhtu. The spirit of the nation was further ignited as the tricolour was hoisted by the esteemed chief guest, Rev. George Victor.

A spectacular display of discipline and coordination was showcased by the students through the synchronized mass drill performed by the 8th and 9th-grade girls, and the awe-inspiring pyramid formation by the boys.

Students showcased traditional Tamil arts such as silambam, surul swinging, and ring ball as part of the Independence Day celebrations.

The cultural extravaganza that followed was a testament to the school's artistic prowess. The cultural program commenced with a prayer song and a benediction by Vice Principal, Mr. Joseph Johnson. Ms, Indira, the Primary Coordinator, extended a warm welcome to the gathering.

The Investiture Ceremony, a significant event, saw the installation of the School Pupil Leader (SPL) and Assistant School Pupil Leader (ASPL).

A kaleidoscope of dance performances by both boys and girls enthralled the audience. The insightful address by the chief guest and the inspiring speech by Academic Advisor, Ms. Vidya Sankaran left a lasting impression. The tiny tots from the primary section stole the show with their adorable fancy dress portrayals of freedom fighters and national leaders. The eloquence of the high school students, who delivered speeches in English and Tamil, was commendable.

The school choir's rendition of patriotic songs and a captivating skit on Rani Lakshmi Bai by the high school students added to the fervour.

The program concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks by High School Coordinator, Ms. Thogai Rani, followed by the singing of the National Anthem. As a sweet gesture, sweets were distributed to everyone present. The Independence Day celebration at Jacob Matriculation School was an unforgettable experience that instilled a deep sense of nationalism and pride in the hearts of all.
