Shakespeare Day: A Linguistic Journey (June & July)

June 24, 2024

The curtain rose on a new chapter in language learning as the English department launched "Shakespeare Day," a weekly celebration of words. Mr. Prathap, our resident wordsmith, laid the foundation with an exploration of spelling rules, enchanting young minds with the magic of letters. The day concluded with a melodious overture as Ms. Anika Joshiba, a budding bard from Grade 3, filled the air with a welcoming song.

July 1, 2024

The second act unfolded with Ms. Preethi, our linguistic guide, setting the stage for language enrichment. The spotlight then shifted to Ms. Jaslin and Ms. Abinaya from Grade 8, who dazzled the audience with their word wizardry, replacing overused phrases and mastering the art of questioning.

July 8, 2024

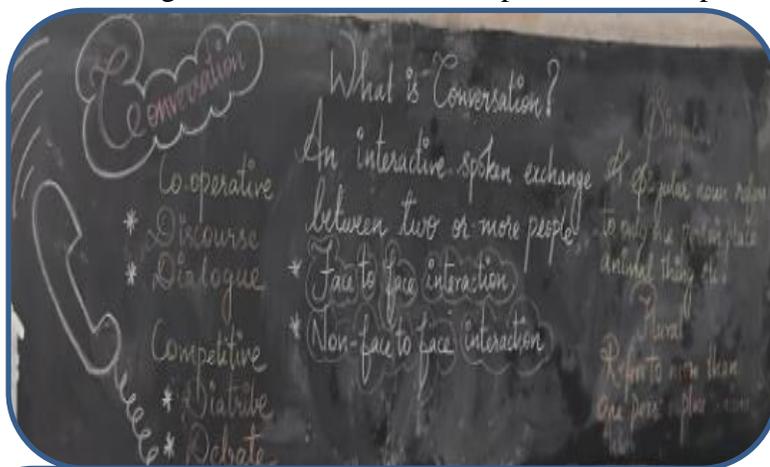

Cancelled, as supplementary exams were conducted at school.

July 15, 2024

The stage transformed into a celebration by the Tamil Department as the school observed Kalvi Valarchi Naal.

July 22, 2024

The linguistic spectacle continued with Grade 4 students showcasing their command of singular and plural nouns. A delightful interlude followed as Grade 2 students painted vivid word pictures through conversation and description of a "fish pot."

July 29, 2024

The final curtain fell on July as the stage was vacated for the festive spirit of Aadi Kiruthigai.

August 12, 2024

The linguistic journey resumed with a unique perspective as a Grade 4 student offered a vivid description of their English class. The session was further enriched by Grade 8 students who demonstrated the nuances of formal and informal greetings and challenged their peers with tongue twisters.

August 19, 2024

Young minds from Grade 2 embarked on a verbal adventure, describing the different rooms in their homes. The linguistic prowess continued as Grade 8 students delved into the differences between IELTS English and basic English. The day concluded with insightful reflections on the qualities of a good student by students from Grade 6B.

A Standing Ovation

Shakespeare Day has been a remarkable platform for students to explore the multifaceted world of language. Through engaging activities and creative expression, these sessions have fostered a love for language and enhanced communication skills. The department is committed to continuing this linguistic journey, nurturing young wordsmiths and orators.
