

36th KG Graduation Function of JMS and JMHSS

Date: 12 Sep 2024

Location: Jacob Nursery and Primary School, Ondikuppam

The 36th KG Graduation function of Jacob Matriculation School and Jacob Matriculation Higher Secondary school was a resounding success. The event was held at Jacob Nursery and Primary School, Ondikuppam, and was attended by a large number of parents, teachers, students, and dignitaries.

Pre-Program Activities

Before the commencement of the program, the branch heads, academic advisor, coordinators, and other incharges gathered for a prayer. This ensured that the event was blessed with God's presence and conducted smoothly.

Arrival of Dignitaries

The dignitaries arrived at the venue and were warmly welcomed by the school band and all the incharges. The academic advisor, Vidya Sankaran Madam, started the event and handed over the session to the anchoring team.

Cultural Performances

The choir of JMHS presented a beautiful prayer song, followed by Bible Reading. The opening prayer was conducted by Rev. George Victor, and the Tamilthai Vaazhthu was sung by the JMHS choir. The students of JMHS then performed a graceful dance to welcome the audience.

Graduation Ceremony

The first batch of graduating students, comprising 20 young graduates from JMHS, received their certificates from Dr. Malarvanan of MV Life Care Hospital. This was followed by the graduation ceremony for 20 young graduates from JMS, who received their certificates from Advocate Current Karthick.

Cultural Performances

After the graduation ceremonies, the students of JMHSS presented a captivating choreography on "Heal the World." A wonderful mime was also performed by the JMS boys, highlighting the importance of traditional games over digital games, the benefits of using helmets, respecting elders, and the significance of trees. The event featured a fusion dance by JNPS children. This vibrant performance showcased the diverse cultures of India through dance.

Graduation Ceremony (Second Batch)

The second batch of 20 students received their graduating certificates from Mr. Jayapaulraj. Three young graduates delivered heartfelt speeches of thanksgiving, with Stacy Abigail's speech from JMHSS being particularly memorable.

Cultural Performances

After the second batch's graduation, the traditional dance by JMS students took place.

Graduation Ceremony (III Batch)

This was followed by the graduation ceremony for the next batch of students from JMS and JMHS, who received their certificates from Rev. George Victor.

Felicitation of Chief Guests

The academic advisor, Vidya Sankaran Madam, felicitated the chief guests, acknowledging their significant achievements and contributions. She expressed her gratitude to Dr. Malarvanan for providing excellent care to the school's correspondent, who was once admitted to MV Life Care Hospital. She also praised Mr. Current Karthick for his social work and Mr. Jayapaulraj, who was warmly welcomed as the Correspondent's brother and Social activist and President of YMCA. Rev. George Victor was honoured for his 15-year association with the school and his continued prayers.

Presentation of Mementos

All the chief guests were escorted to the stage by Mr. Rajan and Mr. Joseph Johnson, who presented them with mementos. The chief guests delivered inspiring speeches, commending the management, teachers, and students of the school.

Cultural Performances

The program concluded with a formation dance by JNPS children, who performed beautifully with flower placards.

Vote of Thanks

The academic advisor, Vidya Sankaran Madam, delivered the vote of thanks, expressing her gratitude to everyone present. She specifically thanked the Correspondent sir and Principal Madam, noting that while they were physically absent, their thoughts and blessings would be with the event.

National Anthem and Dispersal

The program ended with the singing of the national anthem. The children were then carefully handed over to their parents, and the teachers dispersed after a word of prayer.

Overall Success

The 36th KG Graduation function was a complete success, showcasing the achievements of the graduating students and the dedication of the teachers and staff. The cultural performances were exceptional, and the graduation ceremonies were conducted with dignity and respect. The event was a testament to the positive and nurturing environment provided by JMS and JMHS.
