The young graduates, adorned in their graduation attire, were brimming with excitement as they prepared to transition to the next phase of their educational journey.

Key Highlights:

A Solemn Beginning: The ceremony commenced with a heartfelt prayer, seeking divine guidance and blessings for the young graduates. The serene atmosphere was palpable as the school community united in prayer.

A Grand Welcome: Special guests, including dignitaries, parents, and well-wishers, were warmly welcomed by the school band. The lively music and enthusiastic cheers created a festive ambiance.

Academic Advisor's Address: The Academic Advisor, Vidhya Sankaran madam, formally commenced the program.

Welcome Address: Ms. Mercy, vice Principal of JNPS delivered the welcome address.

Cultural Performances: The JMHS choir sang a prayer song, and the JMHS students presented a welcome dance. The JMHS high school children also performed a choreography on "Heal the World." JMS students showcased traditional Tamil culture through their dance, and JNPS students performed a fusion dance representing the diverse cultures of India.

Graduation Ceremony: The young graduates received their graduation certificates and mementos from the chief guests, Mr. Simon Anandh Raj and Mr. Deepan.

Student Speech: Ishanth of JNPS delivered the graduation speech, expressing gratitude to the school staff and administration.

Formation Dance and Mime: JNPS students performed a graceful formation dance, and JMS students presented a mime highlighting the importance of traditional games, helmet usage, respect for elders, and environmental protection.

Felicitation: The Academic Advisor, Vidya Sankaran madam, felicitated the chief guests.

The chief guests were called upon one by one to deliver their speeches.

Mr. Simon Anandh Raj began by emphasizing the significance of having various special guests present at the graduation ceremony. He explained that the diverse range of individuals present in the dais, including a pastor, a sportsperson, a social activist, an advocate, and a social speaker, would serve as inspiring role models for both the children and their parents.

The Pastor followed Mr. Anandh Raj's speech by expressing his gratitude to the Correspondent sir and Principal madam for their tireless efforts in organizing the graduation program. He commended the school for creating a nurturing environment for the children and for celebrating their achievements.

Memento Presentation to Chief Guests: Mr. Jayapaul Raj presented a memento to Mr. Simon Anandh Raj, while Mr. Joseph Johnson, Vice Principal of JMS presented one to Rev. George Victor. Mr. Jayapaulraj also presented a memento to Mr. Deepan, and Mr. Joseph Johnson presented one to Adv. Suresh.

Adv. Suresh took the stage next, sharing a personal anecdote about a friend who had recommended Jacob School for its safe environment, particularly for girls. He praised the teachers for their dedication and creativity, comparing them to skilled sculptors who mould young minds. Adv. Suresh also expressed his deep admiration for the Correspondent sir, referring to him as both a brother and a friend.

Mr. Deepan followed with a thoughtful speech on the significance of the traditional Tamil greeting, "vannakam," which involves raising both hands in unity. He expressed his gratitude to the Correspondent sir through a beautiful Tamil poetic speech, highlighting his invaluable contributions to the school. Mr. Deepan emphasized the importance of teaching children independence and self-reliance.

Mr. Jayapaul Raj concluded the series of speeches by addressing the parents directly. He inquired if both parents were present for their child's graduation, underscoring the importance of family involvement and support. Mr. Jayapaul Raj encouraged parents to motivate their children and avoid comparing them to others, emphasizing the uniqueness of each child.

The graduation ceremony continued with the presentation of certificates for the III and IV batches. Adv. Suresh presided over the graduation of the III batch students, while Mr. Jayapaul Raj and Rev. George Victor shared the responsibility of graduating the IV batch students.

Vote of Thanks: The ceremony concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks delivered by Mrs. Gladies Luie, Vice Principal of JMHSS and singing of National Anthem.

A Joyful Farewell: The children were handed over to their parents, and the teachers were dispersed after a prayer. The second day of the Graduation Ceremony was a resounding success, filled with joy, pride, and a sense of accomplishment.

The KG Graduation Ceremony at Jacob Nursery and Primary School was a truly memorable event that celebrated the achievements of the young graduates. The vibrant performances, inspiring speeches, and heartwarming atmosphere created a lasting impression on all attendees. The school's commitment to providing a nurturing and stimulating learning environment was evident throughout the ceremony.
